▶ San Diego: Paradise Point holiday package from $205

California, San Diego

Why Go:

Paradise Point, a private island just off the Southern California coast, wants to spend the holidays with you. They've got special events planned for nearly every day in December, plus, our editor thinks it'd be a good idea: "The California beach bungalow-style guest rooms are set amid lush tropical gardens and meandering lagoons, while the beach stretches for more than a mile along gentle Mission Bay."

PRICE From $205
