

Destination Hotels: Take up to 50% off spring, summer rates

By Barbara De Lollis, USA TODAY

Updated 3h 48m ago

Comment

Recommend

Tweet

13

+1

2

Starting Friday, Destination Hotels & Resorts will launch its Half-Yearly Sale that offers a discount of between 30% and 50%.

The sale - set to last for 10 days - is good for all of Destination's nearly 40 hotels, which include mountain retreats, downtown hotels and beachfront resorts.

TWITTER: Follow Hotel Check-In's BarbDeLollis

Destination's properties include the newly renovated Madison Hotel in the heart of Washington D.C., the Skamania Lodge in downtown Portland, Ore.; Colorado's Hotel Telluride and the InterContinental Hotel in Tampa, Fla.

Catches? Of course!

This one's simple: To access the discounted rates, you must belong to Destination's free-to-join loyalty program. Membership will get you a complimentary room upgrade or checkout, and a guaranteed 10% off the best available rate in addition to member-only offers.

A few others: Stays at a hotel are valid within a six-month window, although exact dates vary by property so be sure to check in advance. You must book the discounted rates on the company's special web page. Finally, some hotels require that you book a certain number of nights.

Here's a sneak peek at rate deals you'll find starting Friday:

- The Madison: Chop 40% off a three-night stay.
- Paradise Point in San Diego: This hotel in the middle of Mission Bay is letting you cut 30% off a stay of four nights or more.

▶ CAPTION

Courtesy Destination Hotels